Discussion & Reports

*Bike Ride recap

O'Connell reported we had 82 riders @ $25 per (up $415), about 25 raffle books were sold, and sponsorship money was up about $900 over last year.

About 10-15 shirts are still needed for participants. We are looking for the 4XL guy. General agreement that the shirt design by former Queen Connie was superb.

All raffle winners were accounted for and O'Connell will contact them about their prizes.

*Christmas party/meeting:

Kelly has the room reserved and will look into getting the Foy Dancers to perform. His Old School trio will perform again. He will again bring the tree with trimmings that was introduced last year.

Spouse names are needed when members register/pay for the meeting.

McCarthy has the gifts for the ladies in hand already.

A suggestion was made to have a slide show of the year's activities and Dennis will look into whether that can happen this year or not.

*No parade notes at this time, but Young expressed the opinion that the really big space-suckers pay more for their spots.

*Meeting meals:

O'Donnell will assume those monthly duties and members will be asked to volunteer as guest cooks on occasional months.

*This next month's meal is for Oktoberfest and will be brats/dogs, Grandma Heddinger's potato salad & beans.

Murphy will supply the beer.

Adjournment 7:06 p.m.

Next Meeting: Mon., Oct. 26, 2015
