Members are requested to get pictures to Mike Dennis for the creation of the end of year slide show.

Having a Santa for the dinner is still under discussion.

Board Members will be meeting with the city at 10 a.m. Thursday to discuss any cost saving options they might have for the Parade.

Having the FSOSP sponsor family for Mentor Iowa was voted on and passed. Jim O'Donnell will be asked to coordinate again.

Bob Fogarty submitted his resignation as prize chairman effective January 2018. Bob will be available to help the new person(s) transition into the new role. Bob was thanked by the board for all of his fantastic efforts heading this fun and effective fund raising part of the monthly meetings.

Josh gave the T-report and reported a balance of $4,000. Looking forward to dues being paid during the month of January. Raffle tickets for the parade are printed and available for members to sell. Josh is also submitting grant requests to Polk County and Prairie Meadows to help defray the cost of the parade.

Tim Schuck will talk to Pat Rhoads about getting business style cards printed out to list the organizations we support. We will give these out when we sell raffle tickets.

T-Bone will manage raffle ticket sales for the 2018 parade.

Mike O'Connell gave a report on the inaugural Bags Tournament at Sullys. 10 teams entered, and the club made $300 for the event.

Meeting was dismissed at 7:45 p.m.
