OUR MISSION

The Friendly Sons of St. Patrick exists as a social and philanthropic organization for central Iowa men of Irish heritage. The group seeks to create and support programs that promote, maintain and preserve Irish heritage and culture and operates as a benevolent, non-profit charitable organization, donating money to individuals and groups that demonstrate need.

Particular emphasis is placed on efforts that address education, social welfare and health issues, with special attention given to programs for children and the elderly.

The Friendly Sons of Saint Patrick is proud to support many local organizations, a partnership we like to call our Community of Caring. We are thankful for the support of many local sponsors.

5K/10K RUN

For over 30 years this Sunday run has been held in the neighborhoods of WDM, an outing with a fine local focus for over 200 entrants each year.

The 10K component has not changed over time but in the last decade sponsor John Leonhart converted the 2 mile "fun run" to a 5K event. Also, a gradual move of the run date into late March has made the weather more ideal for runners.

Runners/walkers can register online for the 11 a.m. event and pick up packets from 2-5 p.m. the day prior at Sully's Pub. Race number/T-shirt pickups are made from 9:30 on at that pub sign-in location on Sunday morning, as well, and the event begins with a "shotgun" signal from the FSOSP Queen.

Volunteers make it all work by helping at the registration tables and along the route to direct runners and call out times.

Post-event festivities at Sully's Pub next door to the finish line make it a day-long celebration.

In connection to the race, the FSOSP board awards two $500 scholarships to one boy and one girl high school student-participant, chosen from candidates recommended by area coaches.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

A highlight for the Friendly Sons, as well as for all green-blooded Irish descendants, each year is the St. Patrick's Day Parade, sponsored by the Sons on the actual St. Pat's Day, not the closest Saturday, as some cities prefer.

The celebration was organized in the mid-70's and for many years a one-mile parade route began at the Capitol and ended at Embassy Suites in the East Village where a public reception was held. In recent years, the route has changed, moving it to the Gateway West area, establishing the start at Exile Brewing and the reception site at the Marriott Hotel downtown. Each year, almost 30,000 people are drawn to this event.

Live music and other entertainment, including a performance by the Foy School of Irish Dance, are on display throughout the afternoon, culminating in the presentation of parade entry trophies, and the highly-anticipated drawing of the winners of the Lucky Draw raffle, where an annual top prize is a trip to the "auld sod" of Eire.

LEPRECHAUN OPEN

The Sons have had a love/hate affair with the frustrating and glorious Game of Golf for years.

Memories of golfing in the "Bad Old Days" barely survive through the Fog (that Fog being the result of Guinness and Jameson). But bits and pieces do float to the surface: Golf carts stuck in stream-beds, courses from which we are "Banned for Life," and alcohol fumes emanating from clubhouses to the degree they killed small birds for miles around. Tee times were made for 60, and 12 showed up to play. And so the Dream was dead.

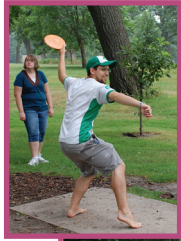

But, after a hiatus of some years, there rose out of the depths (and debts) of that tragic era, a Champion. Wielding a hi-bred wooden head Chipper, and a great love for the Game, he exhorted, extorted, threatened and cajoled members, officers, and board members to support his idea for something he called the Leprechaun Open.

His promises to keep it simple, to make it financially sound, to keep it small, and to make it fun, were convincing, and so the Leprechaun Open was reborn.

It was first played at Hillcrest Golf Club, a private course west of Waukeg, and stayed there for several years. Then, in 2008, the event was moved to Rolling Hills Golf Course, where it continues to be played annually at the start of June.

IRISH OPEN DISC GOLF

The newest entry on the yearly events calendar is the annual "Irish Open" Charity Disc Golf challenge, held at the Grandview Park course at E. 32nd and Easton.

The event, with a 9 a.m. registration and shotgun start at 10, was begun with the input from Adam Grady and other younger members of the club.

For $25, participants receive a collector's disc and compete for hundreds of dollars in certificates and cash prizes for 1st through 5th place results.

HALFWAY TO ST. PAT'S DAY BIKE RIDE

Come mid-September, the most anticipated activity is the Halfway to St. Pat's Bike Ride, held on the Great Western Trail, south of Des Moines. Hundreds of hardy bicyclists gather at Orlando's Bar and Grill on Park Ave. on a Saturday to "tune up" for the noon start of the round trip to the Cumming Tap. Music? Check. Raffle prizes? Check. Refreshments along the route? Check. Fall foofarawing? Double check. Though all the riders might be a shade wobbly on the return, it's a grand way to celebrate St. Pat's a second time each year, raising spirits, and all the while raising money for charitable causes.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

Shopping may be unfinished, but our annual Christmas dinner in the "Top of the Tower" at the Holiday Inn Downtown in early December is a convivial must (except for the deer hunters).

Sons welcome their lovely "better halves" to join them at the hotel for cocktails at 6:00 and then relax with dinner at 7 p.m. followed by presentations, entertainment and raffle drawings, capped with a wee Bailey's Irish Cream Custard dessert. Begorra!

Soft holiday jazz at mealtime and the lasses from the Foy School of Irish Dance are just part of the evening's entertainment.

It's an evening to toast the finish of one more year in each other's company, give a thought to those who are no longer with us and to the promise of the coming year. A season to make merry, indeed...Slainte!

FRIENDLY SONS OF ST. PATRICK
OF CENTRAL IOWA

The Founding of the Friendly Sons of Saint Patrick of Central Iowa

According to founder Bob Conley, when a group of buddies with Irish heritage decided that Des Moines needed an organization to celebrate and sustain that heritage they knew others had gone down the same path. The first chapter of the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick was organized in Philadelphia in 1771, just five years prior to the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The second chapter was established in New York City in 1784. That interest in Irish heritage spread west over the next 200 years, there are now chapters throughout the United States as far as Hawaii. The chapters are not formally affiliated.

Conley explained that he and his brother Raymond (now deceased) organized the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick of Central Iowa along with six friends: Tom Mahedy, Phil Maloney, Jimmy Murphy, Rod Ryan, Jimmy Piazza, and Kevin Sullivan. The founders began organizing in 1975, looking forward to holding an initial event on St. Patrick's Day of the following year. It took a few informal brainstorming meetings involving some adult beverages to focus their wits. Their effort began with information contacts with several existing Friendly Son chapters, including both of the initial U.S. chapters. Philadelphia responded with its bylaws and other information.

It was learned that besides a parade, many chapters held a formal dinner on St. Patrick's Day. After reviewing the practices of other chapters, Conley said, the Des Moines boys decided to start with the tradition established by the Friendly Sons of San Diego - a stag, black tie formal dinner. In cities with this tradition, the annual St. Patrick's Day dinner is a noteworthy social event attended by prominent politicians, community leaders, and other "gentry."

A black tie dinner was organized on St. Patrick's Day of 1976 as the chapter's inaugural event and was held at the Holiday Inn Downtown as a charitable fundraiser for Hospice of Central Iowa, raising $1,000. Piazza claimed there was a spot of nepotism involved with the charity selection since the Conley's mother was a founder of hospice. However, it didn't stop Piazza from playing the piano for that fine dinner, reported Conley. Other charitable efforts in the early years included support for children orphaned by the troubles in Northern Ireland.

Within a year or so, the seven founders found themselves joined by a thriving organization of 240 members, including many who held officer positions in later years. It was decided to forego the black tie dinner in the future. The initial focus was on charity, celebration of Irishness, getting together, and having a good time. Although death, relocation, sobriety, growth in other interests, and other normal cycles of life have claimed many of the original members, at least two, Bob Conley and Rod Ryan, regularly attend meetings to this day.
